

CHESAPEAKE

2020 Annual Day of Learning & Celebration

SUN. APRIL 19
1:15 – 7:30 p.m.

OSEH SHALOM
Laurel, Maryland

KEYNOTE SCHOLAR:
Rabbi Jacob Staub, Ph.D.

RECONSTRUCTIONISM YESTERDAY, TODAY AND TOMORROW

Please join us on Sunday, April 19 for an afternoon of learning and celebration with scholar Rabbi Jacob Staub, Ph.D., professor of Jewish Philosophy and Spirituality at the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College, and director of Evolve: Groundbreaking Jewish Conversations.

The theme of Rabbi Staub's presentation is Reconstructionism: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow.

Following the afternoon of learning, we invite you to stay for the Chesapeake Annual Celebration, where we will honor exceptional individuals from our local congregations.

Schedule:

1:15 p.m. Registration opens for the Day of Learning

1:30 p.m. Annual Day of Learning Keynote

3:00 p.m. Breakout Workshops

- "Creating All-Gender Inclusive Communities"
- "Progressive Israel"
- "Radical Inclusion"
- "Judaism, the Natural World, and You!"

3:30 p.m. Registration opens for the Annual Celebration

4 p.m. Social Hour for the Annual Day of Learning and Celebration

5 p.m. Program of Honor and Celebration

6:15 p.m. Dinner

Purchase Tickets
& Tribute Journal
Messages here:

bit.ly/2020Chesapeake

This year's distinguished honorees are:

Adat Shalom

Pam Sommers and Fred Pinkney

Beit Tikvah

Ken Staubs

CJC

Betty and Peter Silverglate

Kol Ami

Rayna Aylward

Toni Popkin

Mishkan Torah

Mark Loewenstein

Oseh Shalom

Dan Bravmann and Ann Wittik Bravmann

Gary and Melody Magnus